

PMR PRESENTATIONS 2017 AAP ANNUAL MEETING

Feb 7-11, Las Vegas, NV

Track	Role	FACULTY	Presentation Title/Date and Time
Rehab Technology	speaker	Dicianno, Brad	Tele-Rehabilitation: Status of Current Research, Clinical Practice, Medicolegal Issues, and Implications for Future we will discuss where and in what settings tele-rehabilitation has been used in PM&amp;R practices and what is the current state of research in this field 2/9 1:30-3p
Student Events	speaker	Houtrow, Amy	Fellowship Panel of Program Directors: A variety of subspecialties and institutions will provide their views on the benefits of pursuing a fellowship, what they look for in candidates, and how to succeed in fellowship. There will also be an opportunity for residents to ask questions directly of the panel members. 2/9 2-3p
Clinical	speaker	Onishi, Kentaro (w/A. Susmarski)	Advances in the Evaluation and Management of Tendinopathies Session participants will gain in-depth insight into updated understandings of 1) pathophysiology of tendinopathy, 2) biomechanical factors, as well as 3) emerging treatment options. 2/10 2-3p
Research	speaker	Sowa, Gwen	The Elevator Pitch and Beyond: How to Sell Your Idea and Get It Funded Attendees will learn about a variety of funding opportunities, from traditional NIH/NIDRR funding to industry funding, as well as how to leverage small foundation and internal awards to complement or build a funding portfolio. 2/9 10:30a-12p

Track	Role	RESIDENT	Presentation Title and Date/Time
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Current Topics in Sports Medicine: Shoulder Injury Evaluation and Management in depth review of three current topics in sports medicine: shoulder injury evaluation and management 2/9 8-8:30a
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Use It or Lose It: The Importance of Exercise an interactive course designed to teach physiatrists the risks of physical inactivity, benefits of exercise, and current physical activity guidelines 2/9 10:30-12p
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Influence of Biomechanics, Biology, and the Brain on Musculoskeletal Injury Attendees to this course will learn the most common causes for common injuries seen, including patellofemoral pain, ACL injuries, and bone stress injuries. 2/9 10:30-12

Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Lifestyle Medicine: Enhancing the Physiatry Toolbox Introduce the role of the physiatrist in lifestyle medicine. Core principles of lifestyle medicine and evidence regarding lifestyle strategies will be discussed. 2/9 10:30-12
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Current Topics in Sports Medicine: High Intensity Interval Training (HIIT) an in depth review of high intensity interval training (HIIT) 2/9 1-1:30p
Academic	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Movement Matters: Translating Science into Practice for Treatment and Prevention of Patellofemoral Pain and ACL Injuries The session is largely hands-on workshop format focused on applying principles of gait retraining and neuromuscular training for injury management and prevention 2/9 2-3p
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	ACL Injuries: Controversies Regarding Risk, Prevention, Treatment, and Rehabilitation 2/9 3:30-5p
Academic	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Yoga Clinic: Teaching Patients Physiatric Treatment of Scoliosis, Rotator Cuff Syndrome, and Osteoporosis Practical application of yoga-based treatment for scoliosis, rotator cuff syndrome and osteoporosis 2/10 2-3p
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam (w/K. Onishi)	Advances in the Evaluation and Management of Tendinopathies participants will gain in-depth insight into updated understandings of 1) pathophysiology of tendinopathy, 2) biomechanical factors, as well as 3) emerging treatment options 2/10 2-3p
Clinical	co-director	Susmarski, Adam	Training the Brain: Integrating Physical and Neurocognitive Training for Sports Injury Prevention &amp; Rehabilitation 2/11 10:30-11:30a

Track	Role	PROGRAM COORDINATOR	Presentation Title and Date/time
Program Coord Session	speaker	Snead-Peterson, Stacey	The Coordinator's Role in GME - A Year in Review Part 1 2/8 11a-12p
Program Coord Session	lead	Snead-Peterson, Stacey	Coordinators Jeopardy 2/10 1-2p